

Winchester Republican Committee Membership Application

The Winchester Republican Committee is the governing body of the local Republican Party. All legal and qualified voters under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, regardless of race, religion, national origin or sex, who are in accord with the principles of the Republican Party and reside in the City of Winchester and who, if requested, express in open meeting either orally or in writing as may be required, their intent to support all of its nominees for public office in the ensuing election, are eligible for membership on the Winchester Republican Committee.

Committee members are expected to attend all regular and special meetings of the Winchester Republican Committee and volunteer their time and efforts toward party-related activities.

Annual dues are $20.00.

Statement of Qualification

I hereby certify and affirm that I am a duly qualified and registered voter in the City of Winchester, that I am in accord with the principles of the Republican Party, that I will abide by the Bylaws of the Winchester Republican Committee & the Party Plan of the Republican Party of Virginia, and that I intend to support all of the Republican nominees for national, state and local office.
